Social Sciences
History 9
“Creating a Political Pamphlet”

Purpose: To understand the colonists’ feelings about the war.

Activity: Produce a folded pamphlet designed to persuade colonists to accept the Loyal or Patriot position. Imagine that the pamphlet will be printed and circulated soon after a particular episode or event-the Battle of Bunker Hill, for example, or the signing of the Declaration of Independence.

Standards for Evaluation: Pamphlets should...

- ❖ Express a Loyalist or Patriot view
- ❖ Use persuasive language
- ❖ Reflect events of the day
- ❖ End with some kind of call to action
- ❖ Include an eye-catching front page, possibly with hand-drawn illustrations
